establish a pioneering project here to help meet the needs of men whose ministry is threatened by spiritual shallows and intellectual drouth. Dr. Carr is continuing to hold off a decision concerning his future, pending some word from me. I am continuing to pray that somewhere the Almighty will open the door for this thing to happen.

Mildred joins me in sending both you and Dorothy our warmest regards and in expressing the hope that you will be in the Chicago area while we are home, so that we may have an opportunity to visit.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Dwight E. Loder

P.S. I am sending a copy of this to Dorothy, for I know she is likely not to hear about it otherwise. My wife complains that I do not tell her things that go on at the office, and it may be Dorothy has grounds for the same complaint. Anyway, Dorothy has a special place in my heart. DEL
